Important

Any information provided to the above helplines and details of the guidance given may be provided to Markel. Claims or circumstances that could give rise to a claim cannot be notified via these helplines and instead policyholders should contact us using the details under the heading 'How to make a claim' above.

Things you must do

You must comply with the claims conditions. These can be found under 'claims conditions that apply to this policy as a whole'.

All claims are required to be notified in writing in order for us to consider them under the insurance policy.

If you fail to comply with these conditions we may not pay your claim or any payment could be reduced.

Fraudulent claim

If you make a fraudulent claim under this policy:

- we are not liable to pay the claim, and
- we may recover from you any sums we have paid to you in respect of the claim, and
- we may write telling you that we are treating the contract as having been terminated with effect from the fraudulent act.

If we do write to you telling you that we are treating this policy as having been terminated:

- we will not be liable to you in respect of any relevant event occurring after the time of the fraudulent act. A relevant event is whatever gives rise to our liability under this policy (such as a loss, the making of a claim, or the notification of a potential claim), and
- we need not return any of the premium paid.

If this policy provides cover for any person who is not a party to the contract of insurance ('a covered person', for example a officer or an insured person), and a fraudulent claim is made under this policy by or on behalf of a covered person, we may exercise the same rights as above as if there was an individual contract of insurance between the covered person and us. However, the exercise of any of these rights shall not effect the cover provided under this policy for any other person.

In respect of any fraudulent claim under the trustees liability section of cover (if purchased), we will not exercise our right to treat this policy as having been terminated.

Our reliance on the information provided to us

In deciding to accept this policy and in setting the terms and premium we have relied on the information you have given us. You must take care when answering any questions we ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If you become aware that information you have given us is inaccurate you must inform us as soon as practicable.

The information you have provided us constitutes your fair presentation of risk.

A 'fair presentation of the risk' is one

- which discloses to us every material circumstance which you know of or ought to know of, or
 - gives us sufficient information to put us on notice that we will need to make further enquiries for the purpose of revealing those material circumstances, and
- which makes that disclosure in a manner which is reasonably clear and accessible to us and

- in which every material representation as to a matter of fact is substantially correct and every material representation as to a matter of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

A 'material circumstance' is one that would influence our decision as to whether or not to agree to insure you and, if so, the terms of that insurance. If you are in any doubt as to whether a circumstance is material you should disclose it to us.

If you fail to make a fair presentation of risk there are a number of remedies available to us which are set out in general condition 7 (breach of the duty of fair presentation) in the section 'conditions that apply to this policy as a whole (general conditions)'.

We will write to you if we intend to take one of these remedies.

How to cancel this policy

You can cancel this insurance (other than the trustees liability section of cover) at any time by writing to us.

We can cancel this insurance (other than the trustees liability section of cover) by giving you 30 days written notice. We will only do this for a valid reason, examples of valid reasons are:

- a change in risk occurring which means we can no longer provide you with insurance cover
- non-cooperation or failure to supply any information or documentation we request.

Cooling-off period

This policy has a cooling-off period of 14 days from either:

- the date you receive this insurance policy, or
- the start of the period of insurance shown in the policy schedule

whichever is the later.

Refund of premium

If we pay (or have agreed to pay) any claim, in whole or in part, then no refund of premium will be allowed.

If we haven't paid (or agreed to pay) any claim, in whole or in part, then:

- if we cancel this policy you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for any time for which you have been covered. This will be calculated on a proportional basis. For example, if you have been covered for 6 months and the period of insurance shown in the policy schedule is for 12 months, the deduction for the time you have been covered will be half the annual premium.
- if you cancel this policy within the cooling-off period we will return to you all of the premium paid without any deduction.
- if you cancel this policy outside the cooling-off period you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for any time for which you have been covered. This will be calculated on a proportional basis.

If the premium is paid by instalments the way we calculate the return premium may differ, please refer to general condition 2 (premium payment).

How to make a complaint

Our aim is to ensure that all aspects of your insurance are dealt with promptly, efficiently and fairly. At all times we are committed to providing you with the highest standard of service.

If you have any questions or concerns about your policy or the handling of a claim you should, in the first instance, contact us.

In the event that you remain dissatisfied and wish to make a complaint you can do so at any time by writing to the Financial Ombudsman Service.

in addition, if either
